

INTRODUCTION

Message From Our Manager

Welcome to our Autumn Newsletter.

We have had plenty happening at Roselea Court over recent weeks, with residents enjoying outings, creative activities and some special occasions here at home.

A real highlight was the official opening of our new bandstand, which was made particularly special by its connection to a former resident and her love of music. We have also launched our new Honesty Shed, which has already received a great response, and came together to support Macmillan Cancer Support with our coffee morning.

Away from the home, our VIPs enjoyed a peaceful canal trip with friends from The Seagull Trust, while Margaret had a very important family celebration to attend.

Thank you to everyone who continues to support our activities, fundraising and events. We hope you enjoy catching up on some of our recent news.

If you know someone who would like to receive our email newsletters/updates just let us know, or forward them the newsletter sign up link below:

ACTIVITIES & EVENTS

Macmillan Coffee Morning

We came together for our Macmillan Coffee Morning to enjoy good company, delicious cakes and a well-earned cup of tea or coffee, while raising funds for Macmillan Cancer Support.

There was plenty of conversation and laughter as everyone gathered to enjoy the homemade treats and spend time together. Most importantly, the morning helped support Macmillan and the practical, emotional and financial support they provide to people living with cancer and their families.

A big thank you to everyone who baked, donated, helped organise the event or simply came along and joined us. Every contribution was appreciated and helped make the coffee morning a lovely occasion while supporting an important cause.

Autumn Crafts

Our VIPs have been getting creative with an autumn-themed craft session, taking inspiration from the colours and textures of the season.

Everyone had the opportunity to make their own autumn creations, with plenty of ideas and conversation being shared around the table.

It was a relaxed session and lovely to see everyone getting involved and enjoying seeing their finished creations take shape.

The Honesty Shed

After plenty of preparation, our new Honesty Shed has officially opened, and we couldn't have asked for a better start.

From the first day, people were popping in for a look, picking up bargains and dropping off donations. We have already received a variety of items to sell, which means there will be new finds appearing on the shelves as the weeks go on.

What began as a small idea has now become a new fundraising project, and we are very grateful for the support it has received so far.

Thank you to everyone who has bought something, donated items, shared the news or supported the project. We look forward to seeing what treasures arrive next and watching our fundraising total grow.

A Special Family Wedding

Our lovely VIP Margaret had a very important occasion to get ready for as she prepared to attend her grandson's wedding.

Our team helped Margaret get dressed and ready for the celebration, making sure she was all set to enjoy the special day with her family.

We hope Margaret had a lovely time celebrating with everyone and making some very special family memories.

Our New Bandstand

We celebrated an important moment at Roselea Court with the official opening of our beautiful new bandstand.

Our lovely Pete Kelly had the honour of opening it in memory of his much-loved mum, who was once a resident at the home. She had a real love of music, making the bandstand a particularly fitting tribute to her.

We would like to thank everyone who helped make the bandstand possible through donations, practical help and support. It has been a real team effort, and we are very grateful to everyone who played a part.

The Scottish weather also made an appearance on the day, but a little rain certainly wasn't going to stop us from enjoying the garden. We were joined by Unite Scotland Kinnell Brass Band, who provided the music for the afternoon and helped bring our new bandstand to life for the first time.

Afterwards, our VIPs and their families headed to the Champagne Lounge, where they enjoyed mocktails, tea, coffee and plenty of delicious cakes.

It was a lovely afternoon shared with residents, families and friends, and a very fitting way to officially open our new bandstand. We look forward to enjoying many more musical afternoons in the garden, whatever the weather brings.

The Seagull Trust

Our VIPs enjoyed a lovely afternoon out on the canal with our friends from The Seagull Trust.

The sun was shining as everyone sailed peacefully along the water, taking in the scenery and enjoying the company. There was plenty of conversation and laughter along the way, with stories and memories being shared as the boat made its way along the canal.

Thank you to everyone at The Seagull Trust for making the outing possible and giving our VIPs such an enjoyable afternoon.

COMING UP

Looking Ahead...

As we continue into autumn, there is plenty for us to look forward to. Our new bandstand is ready for future afternoons of music in the garden, while the Honesty Shed is now open and beginning its fundraising journey.

We look forward to more activities, outings and opportunities to bring our VIPs, families and friends together over the coming months, and we will be sharing plenty more news along the way.
